

METEOROLOGY.—THE LATE GAL.—The past week has been remarkable for the electrical disturbance, great erosion in the air, furious males and heavy storms of rain.

continuously throughout Sunday, accompanied. On Monday, showers were frequent: cold. The storms of rain which prevailed t down. Mr. R. Badcock presided, as——Lloyd, Esq., C. Duffield, Esq., J. J.

—Morland, Esq., W. D. Wabrough, Esq. agriculturists and breeders and neighbourhood. At the request of the in a few prefatory remarks, proposed Lindsay, and expressed a hope that the while the Colonel had had a long time that they might live to see him on occasions. (Cheers.) In acknowledgment Col. Lloyd Lindsay said he was very good company present. Whether the or to pay him a visit, all be could say welcome. With regard to the cattle find them worthy their consideration something besides good feeling was it was necessary they should be livered that had been to the market and if the
not know what was to make them so.
who were purchasers would have re-their purchases. He concluded by health. (Cheers.) At the conclusion

pany adjourned to the place of sale, with the bogs, which realized high prices, came under the hammer, and were ling figures, the average of the fat was highest price for the extra fed sheep—lowest, 32. 12s. 9d. The cattle were the competition was very brisk, part of the sale was made in the afternoon, the most spirited biddings, and were at the following figures.—Hereford 54L; short-horn heifer, 41L 5s.; and Among the purchasers were J. B. Eagers, Messrs. Wilson, Legg, Pratt, New, Mulcock, Gendry, Perry, Alden, son (Wantage), Jackson (Oxford), Paul Lovelock, Wells, Dixon, Sir. Gresham Watson for the manner in which even. Altogether high prices were realised, the sale was worth 2,701. Mr. R. K. was with his usual success. Mr. auctioneers.

INQUEST.—On Friday, W. D. Coroner, held an inquest at the Blue of a little girl named Alice God, aged Mr. A. God, Wallingford-street. It went to bed, but there was nothing in cite alarm until the Tuesday, when

WANTAGE CORN EXCHANGER. Trade to-day very dull; prices ranged from 50c to 56c; Beans, 40c to 43c; Barley, 24c to 28c per qt.

CHOLSEY

FATAL ACCIDENT.—On Tuesday James West, upwards of 70 years of age, a plowman, proceeded to Basildon with his horse and on his return, when passing down the road, at Basildon, he endeavoured to get his horse over a ditch, and in the attempt the horse fell, and the wheels passing over him, he died a few minutes after. Mr. John James, farmer, lived he was perfectly sober at the time.

HURRICANE.—On Wednesday a complete hurricane in this neighborhood did considerable damage to the thatch on the chimney pots were blown down. Rain fell the whole of the day.

WALINGFORD AND WATLIN
This railway, which was commenced since, is still in progress, and is at available for passenger traffic before
There will be a tunnel under the town Watlington to Reading, the building commenced.

THE HUN

HER MAJESTY'S.—At half-past eleven Swinley—Friday, Denham Court.
MR. HENLEY GRAVISES.—The
Monday, Leam—Wednesday, Cusum
SOUTH BEKES.—At Eleven.—Monday
Tuesday, Dulahore Tower—Friday.
MR. GARTH'S.—At half-past Ten—
Wednesday, Hightstanding Hill—Fri-Saturday, Hall Oorch, and CRAVEN.—Mr. O. O. "Ails"—At a Monday, West Wood House—Wed-
Saturday, Hermitage.
H. H.—At a quarter before Eleven.—

HURSLEY.—At a quarter before Eleven

Lamb—Friday, Shawford House.
HAMBLETON—At a quarter before Eleven—Wednesday, Allington Priory.
THE NYNE—(Mr. A. Whieldon's)—Tuesday, Oakley Hall—Thursday, Saturday, Ash Warren Farm.
TEDEWORTH—At Elvern—Monday, Tuesday—Thursday, Chute Windmill.
DIKE OF BEAUFORTS—At half-past five—Tuesday, Langley Organs—Wednesday, Lower Woods (at 11.30)—Saturday, Stratton Gate.
NETTHEROT—At a quarter before Eleven—Wednesday, Ledwell Village—Saturday, Ensham Hall.
RIGSBET—At a quarter before Eleven—Tuesday, Thursday, Saturday—Wednesday, Saturday, Arley Village.
SOUTH OXFORDSHIRE—At Elvern—Friday, Rinfeld.
VALE OF WHITE HORSE—At a quarter before Eleven—Tuesday, Down Ampney House—Wednesday, Thursday, Saturday, Sunday, 11.30.

WARWICKSHIRE.—At Evesham.—Monday, Tuesday, Weston House—Thursday, Friday, Swadcliffe.

BIRTHS, MARRIAGES.
 *All announcements of Births, Marriages, authenticated by the name and address, and all announcements are chargeable.
BIRTHS.
 On the 11th inst., at "The Crown and Lion," Mrs. George Phillips, of a son.
 On the 21st inst., at the Brewery, Reigate, Surrey, Esq., late Fellow of King's College, London.
 On the 21st inst., at Broughambury, W. C. Mole, Esq., of a son.
MARRIAGES.
 On the 12th inst., at St. Mary's, Bachelors, Benjamin Rowles, son of Mr. Henry, to Julia, second daughter of the late of the same place.
 On the 14th inst., at St. Giles' Church,

George Merriman, Mr. Edward Wyatt, of Jane, youngest daughter of Mr. William
On the 21st inst., at the Parish Church

Dover, to the Rev. H. A. Mauls, M.A., at M.A. Augusta Henry Mauls, to Ellen
 I. Isabella, wife of the late J. C. Mauls.
 On the 21st inst., at the Baptist Chapel, Rev. Stephen Sale, George, the second child, to Koenig, eldest daughter of Mr. Joseph Manner Farm, Wokingham.
 On the 21st inst., at Ham, Kingston-upon-Thames, to Mr. Joseph R. Hyde, of St.
 George, to Harriet Elizabeth, youngest daughter of Spensholt, Berlin.
 On the 22nd inst., at St. Martin's square, by the Rev. W. G. Humphrey, B.
 R. Silence, Esq., of Compton, to Maria
 Harriet, daughter of the late J. C. Mauls.
 On the 23rd inst., by license, at St. Vivian, to the Rev. Allen J. Edwards, Mr. Joseph James Adams, Poplar Farm, Co. of Nassau Street Hyde, youngest daughter
 the same place.

DEATHS.

On the 17th ult., at Rochester, S. children of the late J. C. Mauls.
 On the 18th inst., at Windsor, Anna
 William Godfrey, Esq.

On the 9th inst., at Sunningwell, near of Mr. Joseph Wheeler, aged 79.
On the 12th inst., Jemima, the beloved

On the 13th inst., at 20, New King-street.
On the 46th inst., at Speenhamland, Essex Mr. Wm. Whittier, of Brighton.

On the 19th inst., at Hatheron, near daughter of the late Thomas E. Baker, 1 her age.

On the 17th inst., Miss K. Moles, of Pre-
On the 17th inst., at Farmstead, near daughter of the late Richard and Mary
On the 17th inst., at Green Moor Hill shire, Mr. Abel Lewis, in his 81st year.

On the 18th inst., at Reading, James T. The Lime, Epson, in the 79th year of his
On the 18th inst., at 18, Adelaide-sq. Hammer, in her 79th year.

On the 18th inst., Alfred Thomas, eldest son of Alfred Jackson of Upton, Hunts, in On the 18th inst., Mr. Thos. Gale, of
On the 29th inst., suddenly, Mrs. F. Esq., of Warminster, Oxon., in her 74th
On the 29th inst., at Alford, W.Leslie

Thomas Davis, of the same place.

ag 69, deeply regretted.

On the 20th inst., at Durney, Bucks, Dornay Court, second surviving, but the late wife Sir Charles Harcourt.

On the 20th inst., at Reading, the R. M.A., formerly of Malvern, Gloucestershire Lieut.-Col. Charles Martin, of Seven Wootton.

On the 21st inst., at Exeter, Lady Catherine de Borna, in the 84th year.

On the 21st inst., at Newham Place, Brighton, aged 70.

On the 21st inst., at Goldsmith, Will Benjamin and Caroline Kidd, of Loughagh St.

On the 22nd inst., at Kilm., Mr. James Macgregor, aged 69, much regretted.

On the 23rd inst., at his residence, Avenue Road, Mr. Samuel Colley, a Member of Council, and Poor Law Commissioner.

On the 24th inst., Arthur Harry, child of John and Mary Fuller, of Kilm.